Important notes :

- English isn't my first language, so excuse me in advance if what I say isn't perfectly well-written. Feel free to correct anything if that can make it clearer.

- The people will speak about aren't pedocriminal per see, but they're certainly pedo-apologist, or what I call pedo-minded people. At the very least, they use some dangerous pedo-apologist rethoric. That's not the kind of people you want potentially to exchange or be close to minors, at any point.

As an incentive to read it all, I'm putting a quick summary of the problem : Basically, I found some pedo-minded people and pedo-apologists on one of Resetera's most important and most secretive Discord Server. I went directly to Cerium - Resetera's owner - and not only did he do nothing about it, but he defended them and blocked me when I confronted him about it. Those pedo are still active in Resetera as we speak, nothing was done against them by Resetera's staff.

I'll back try to back up every claims with proves and make it as clear as possible.

Some little context :

I won't disclose my real name, but I was a Resetera's member known by the pseudo Celine.D.Sykes. I won't lie, at first Resetera was cool. It was mostly safe for a young woman who liked video-games, I even intended to be a moderator at some point. That was before I discovered Resetera was full of disturbed and dangerous people. Some weeks after I subscribed to the forum, I was invited to a super "secretive community" related to Resetera. I was invited by a member named LordKano, after a quick exchange through Resetera's private messages. I also became somewhat casual with Cerium, Resetera's owner, even if I don't remember exactly when/how. Let's say we use to discuss together for a couple of months.

This super "secretive community" was a discord server. This discord server was basically the backroom of Resetera or a kind of Resetera's "boys club". A lot of the most active and prominent Resetera's members were (and still are) partaking in it.

In this discord server, you could find people like :

- ZhugeEx, one of Resetera most proeminent admin, who's very, very active in it. He probably has more than 2000 messages in this server and is online most of the time.
- Emily Rogers, who was one of Resetera's most famous admin at some point.
- Mat Piscatella, an employee of NPD and one of Resetera VIP members. Again a very active member of this server.
- Jawmuncher, one of Resetera oldest moderator.
- And many more.

Proves of them being there :

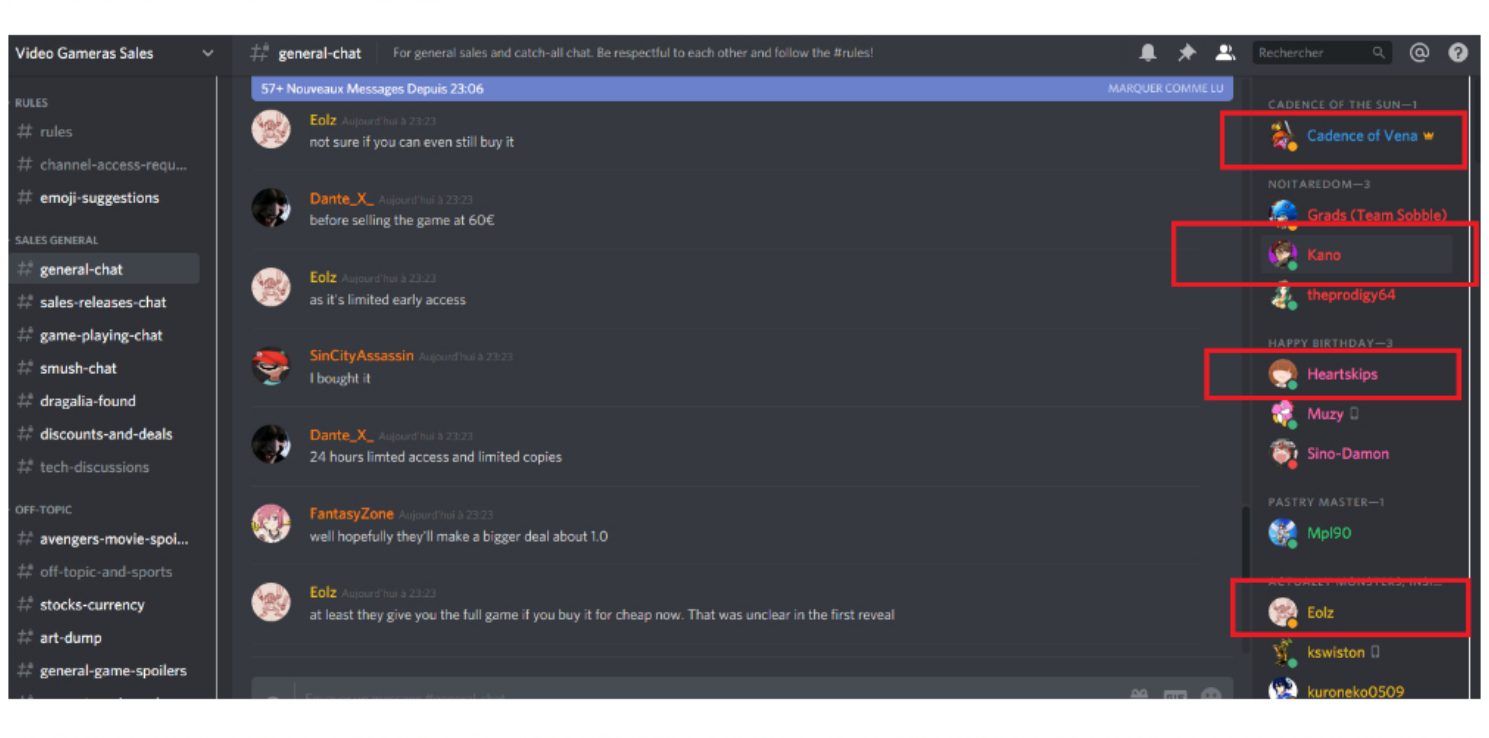
I'm only listing those above-mentioned people so you know that this Resetera's Discord server wasn't some random Resetera's discord. It's important to precise that the people I mentioned just above aren't the pedo-minded people I'll talk about. However, I'm still wondering if most of them did ignore what happened under their noses or not. I'm sure some of them knew, but for the rest, that's up to them to clarify. Still, I would found weird that among all those people, I was the only soul aware of the weird discussions on this server, despite being there for only some weeks...

There was also some of the most active Resetera's member :



Eolz: not sure if you can even still buy it
Dante_X_: before selling the game at 60€
Eolz: as it's limited early access
SinCityAssassin: I bought it
Dante_X_: 24 hours limited access and limited copies

To give more context : the process for subscribing to this discord server was quite locked and intricate. You had to be invited, then validated by mods and admins, wait for some time and then, there was another process to be able to browse the server. I don't remember the whole process exactly, but I remember it was a pain in the ass. Pretty suspect for a simple Nintendo Discord, right ? Keep reading and you'll understand why.

To make a long story short, I quickly realized there was something weird on this server and someone told me casually that pedo discussions were rampant on this server. He told it to me like I wouldn't care. Problem was I did care and I decided to dig a little. In my research, I typed three common keywords in the Discord's search bar of this server : "underage", "pedo" and "16 years old". I had the time to type some others, but with those three keywords only, I found many proves of the pedophile tendencies or pedo-apologist tendencies of a group of persons, among the most active in this server.

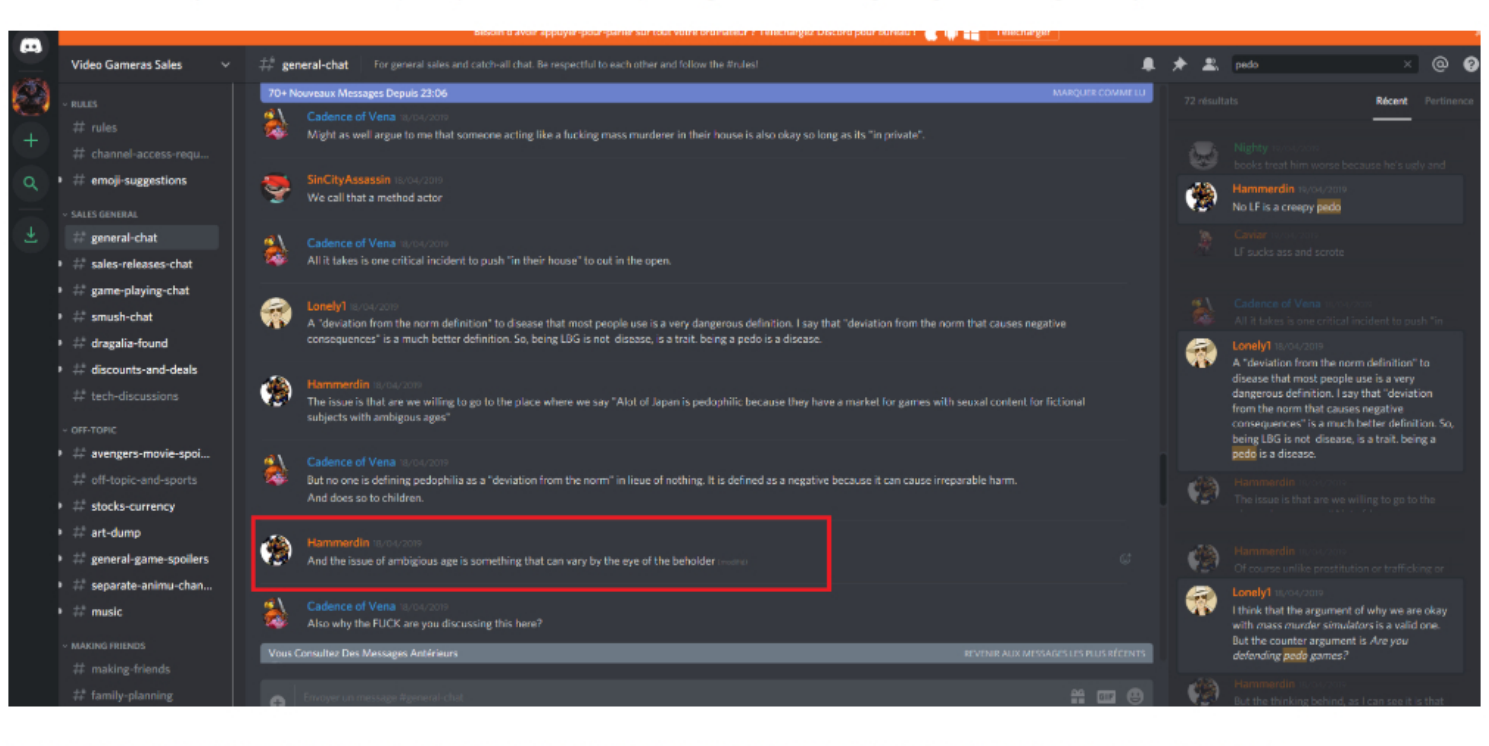
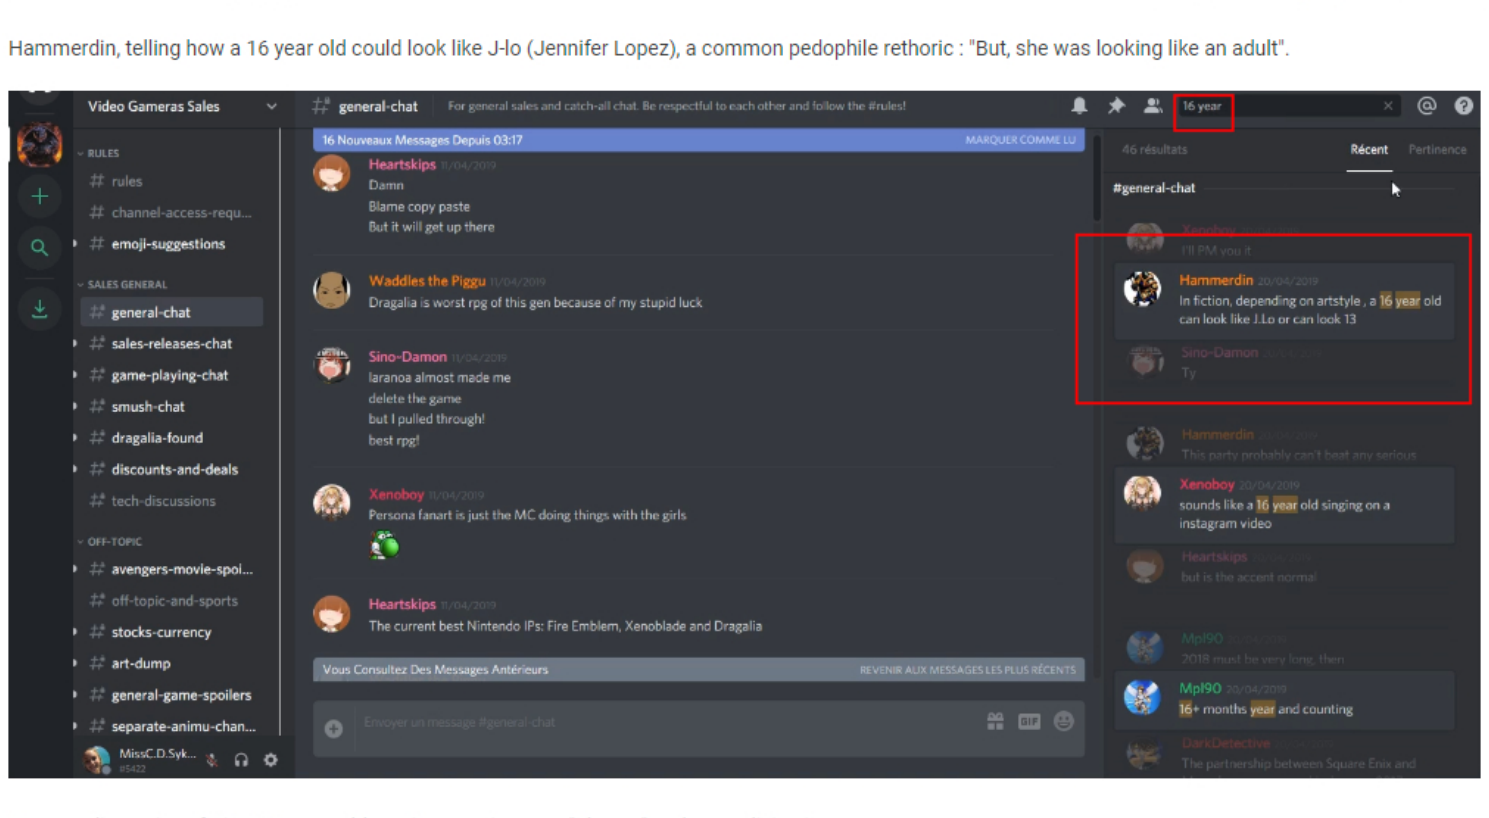
Here, you have Hammerdin (same pseudo on Resetera), talking about how ambigous age and how age is subjective :



Cadence of Vena: Might as well argue to me that someone acting like a fucking mass murderer in their 'esque is also okay so long as its "in private".
SinCityAssassin: We call that a method actor
Cadence of Vena: All it takes is one critical incident to push "in their house" to out in the open.
Lonely1: A "deviation from the norm definition" to disease that most people use is a very dangerous definition. I say that "deviation from the norm that causes negative consequences" is a much better definition. So, being LBG is not disease, is a trait. being a pedo is a disease.
Hammerdin: The issue is that are we willing to go to the place where we say "Alot of Japan is pedophilic because they have a market for games with sexual content for fictional subjects with ambigous ages"
Cadence of Vena: But no one is defining pedophilia as a "deviation from the norm" in lieu of nothing. It is defined as a negative because it can cause irreparable harm. And does so to children.
Hammerdin: And the issue of ambiguous age is something that can vary by the eye of the beholder
Cadence of Vena: Also why the FUCK are you discussing this here?
Hammerdin: No LF is a creepy pedo

Hammerdin, telling how a 16 year old could look like J-lo (Jennifer Lopez), a common pedophile rethoric : "But, she was looking like an adult".



Heartskips: Damn
Blame copy paste
But it will get up there
Waddles the Piggu: Dragalia is worst rpg of this gen because of my stupid luck
Sino-Damon: laranoa almost made me delete the game
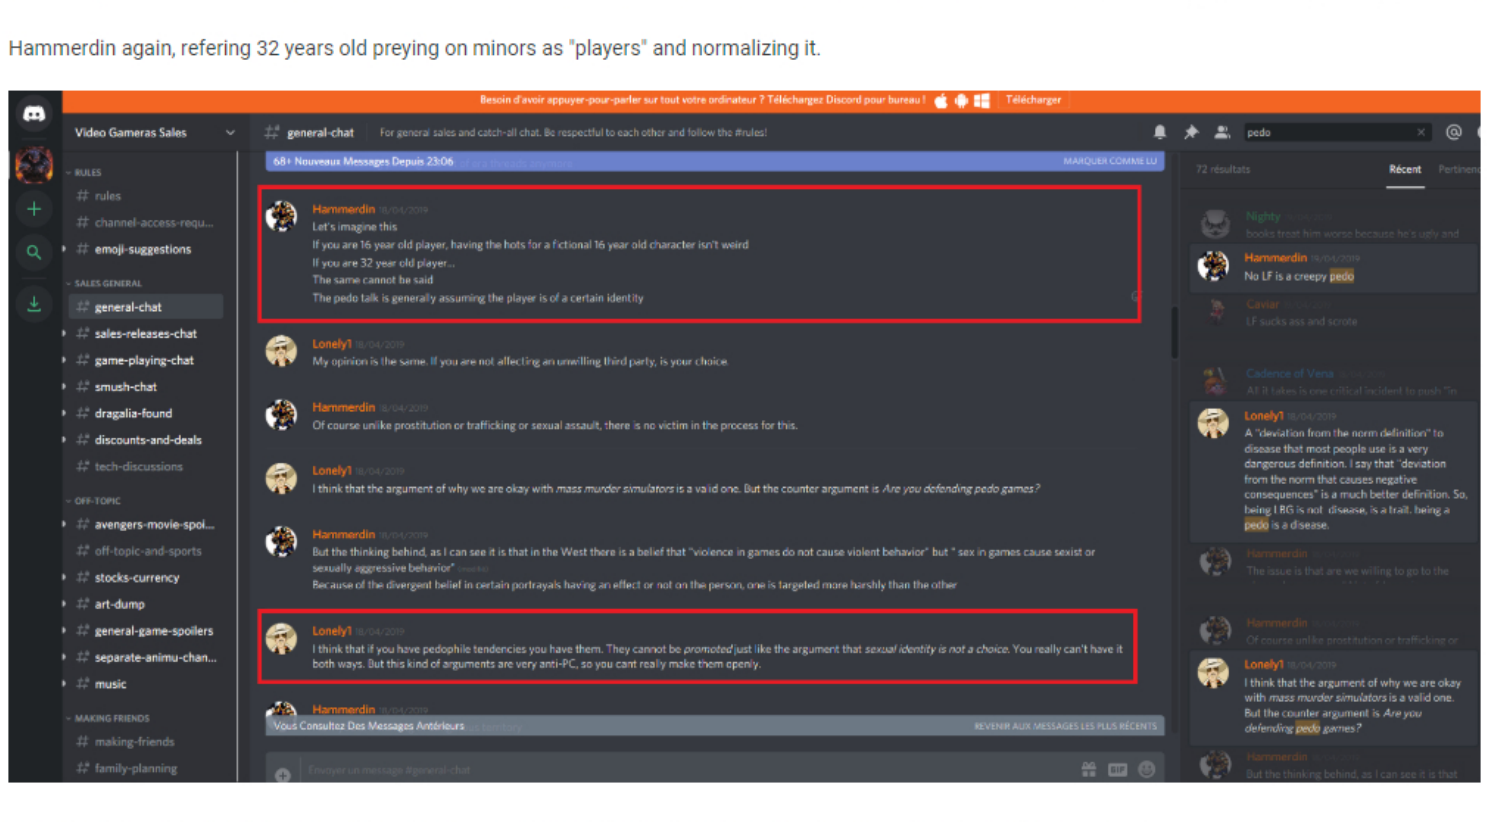
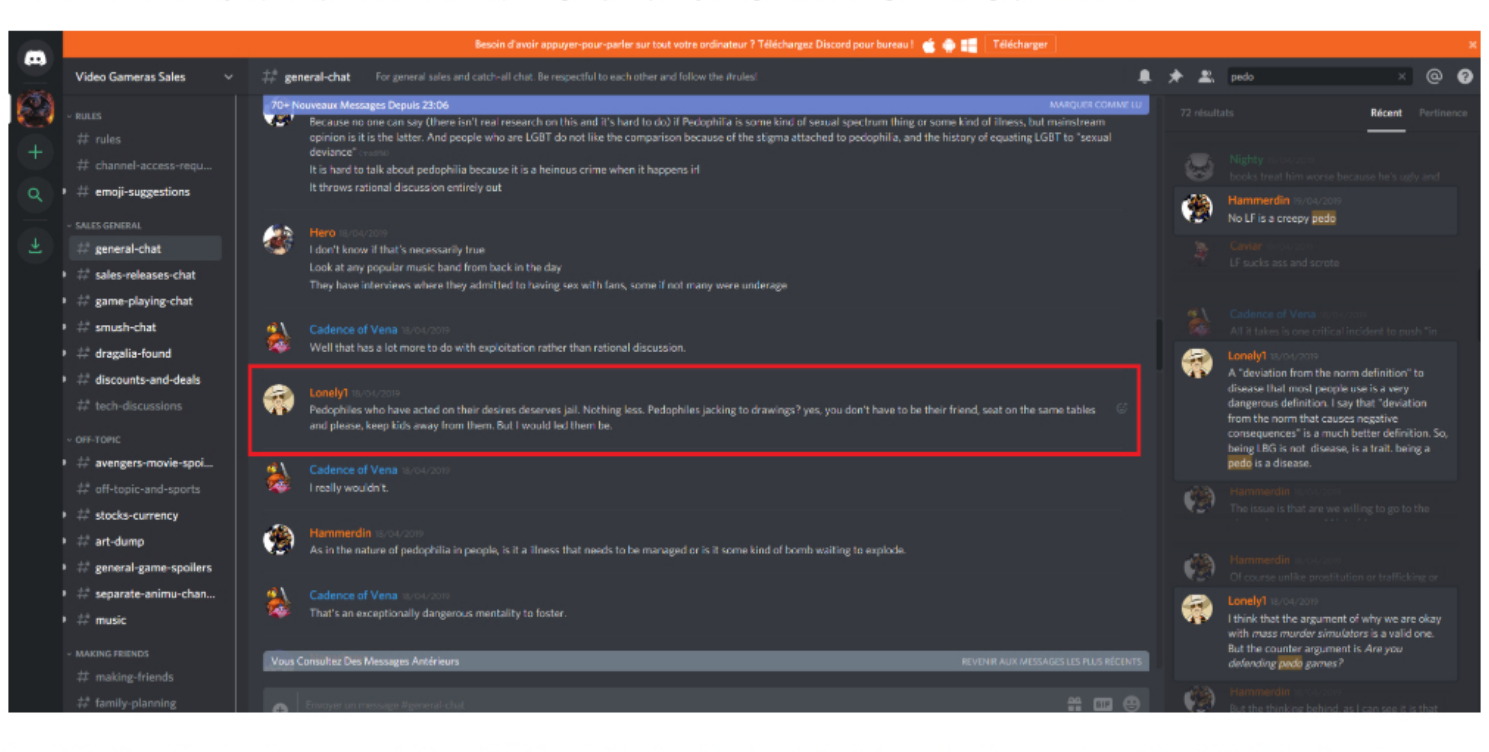
but I pulled through!
best rpg!
Xenoboy: Persona fanart is just the MC doing things with the girls
Heartskips: The current best Nintendo IPs: Fire Emblem, Xenoblade and Dragalia
Vous Consultez Des Messages Antérieurs
Hammerdin: In fiction, depending on artstyle, a 16 year old can look like J.Lo or can look 13
Xenoboy: sounds like a 16 year old singing on a instagram video
Mpl90: 16+ months year and counting

Hammerdin again, refering 32 years old preying on minors as "players" and normalizing it.



Hammerdin: Let's imagine this
If you are 16 year old player, having the hots for a fictional 16 year old character isn't weird
If you are 32 year old player...
The same cannot be said
The pedo talk is generally assuming the player is of a certain identity
Lonely1: My opinion is the same. If you are not affecting an unwilling third party, is your choice.
Hammerdin: Of course unlike prostitution or trafficking or sexual assault, there is no victim in the process for this.
Lonely1: I think that the argument of why we are okay with mass murder simulators is a valid one. But the counter argument is Are you defending pedo games?
Hammerdin: But the thinking behind, as I can see it is that in the West there is a belief that "violence in games do not cause violent behavior" but " sex in games cause sexual or sexually aggressive behavior"
Because of the divergent belief in certain portrayals having an effect or not on the person, one is targeted more harshly than the other.
Lonely1: I think that if you have pedophile tendencies you have them. They cannot be promoted just like the argument that sexual identity is not a choice. You really can't have it both ways. But this kind of arguments are very anti-PC, so you cant really make them openly.

You can also see "Lonely1" (same pseudo on Resetera) telling us pedophile jacking off to drawing of underage persons is fine.



Hammerdin: Because no one can say (there isn't real research on this and it's hard to do) if Pedophilia is some kind of sexual spectrum thing or some kind of illness, but mainstream opinion is it is the latter. And people who are LGBT do not like the comparison because of the stigma attached to pedophilia, and the history of equating LGBT to "sexual deviancy"
It is hard to talk about pedophilia because it is a heinous crimes when it happens irl
It throws rational discussion entirely out
Hero: I don't know if that's necessarily true
Look at any popular music band from back in the day
They have interviews where they admitted to having sex with fans, some I'd not many were underage Cadence of Vena: Well that has a lot more to do with exploitation rather than rational discussion.
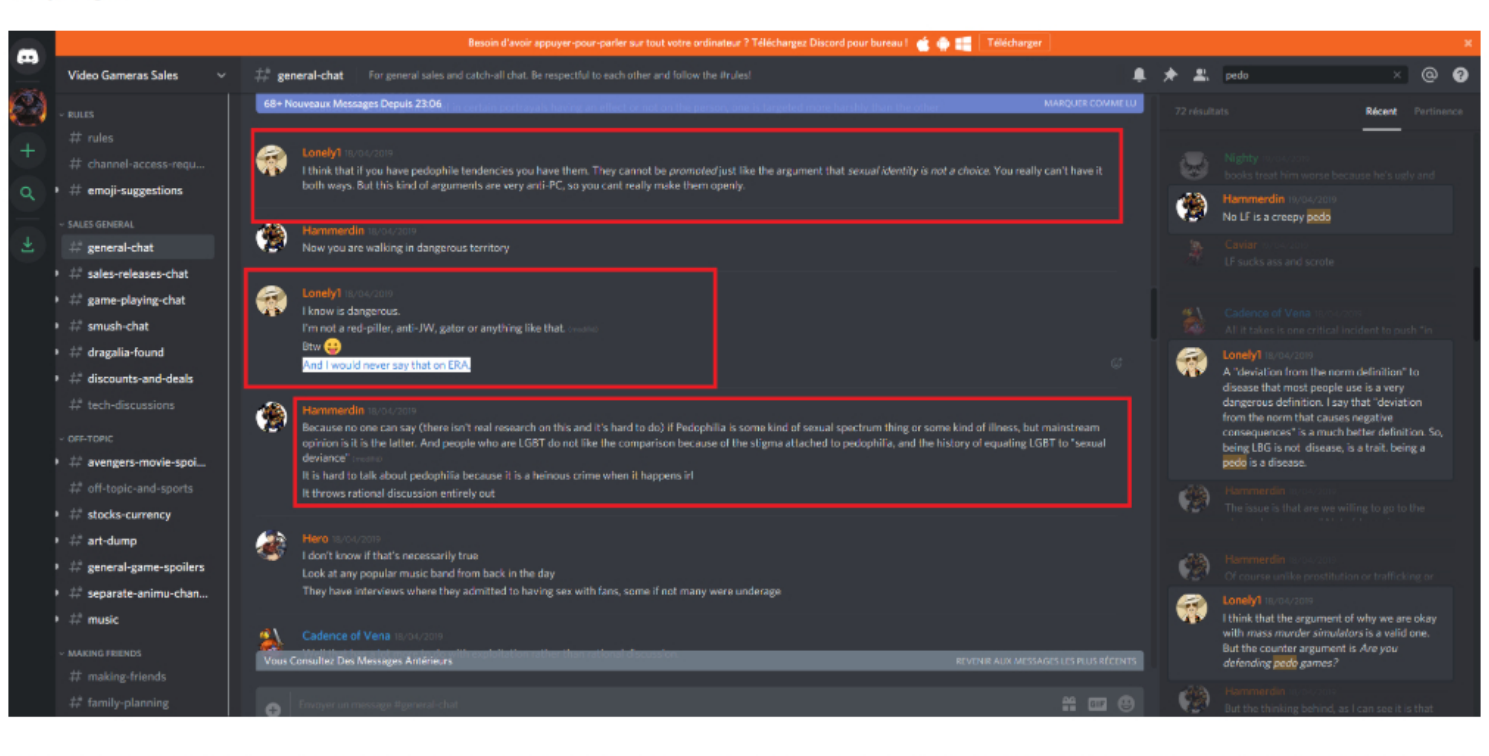
Lonely1: Pedophiles who have acted on their desires deserves jail. Nothing less. Pedophiles jacking to drawings? yes, you don't have to be their friend, seat on the same table, and please, keep kids away from them. But I would let them be.
Cadence of Vena: I really wouldn't.
Hammerdin: As in the nature of pedophilia in people, is it a illness that needs to be managed or is it some kind of bomb waiting to explode.
Cadence of Vena: That's an exceptionally dangerous mentality to foster.

Lonely1, telling us how he will never say what he really thinks about pedo on Resetera, in front of many Resetera member and the admin of this discord server. Everything is fine.



Lonely1: I think that if you have pedophile tendencies you have them. They cannot be promoted just like the argument that sexual identity is not a choice. You really can't have it both ways. But this kind of arguments are very anti-PC, so you cant really make them openly.
Hammerdin: Now you are walking in dangerous territory
Lonely1: I know is dangerous.
I'm not a red-piller, anti-JW, gator or anything like that thru 😄
And I would never say that on ERA
Hammerdin: Because no one can say (there isn't real research on this and it's hard to do) if Pedophilia is some kind of sexual spectrum thing or some kind of illness, but mainstream opinion is it is the latter. And people who are LGBT do not like the comparison because of the stigma attached to pedophilia, and the history of equating LGBT to "sexual deviancy"

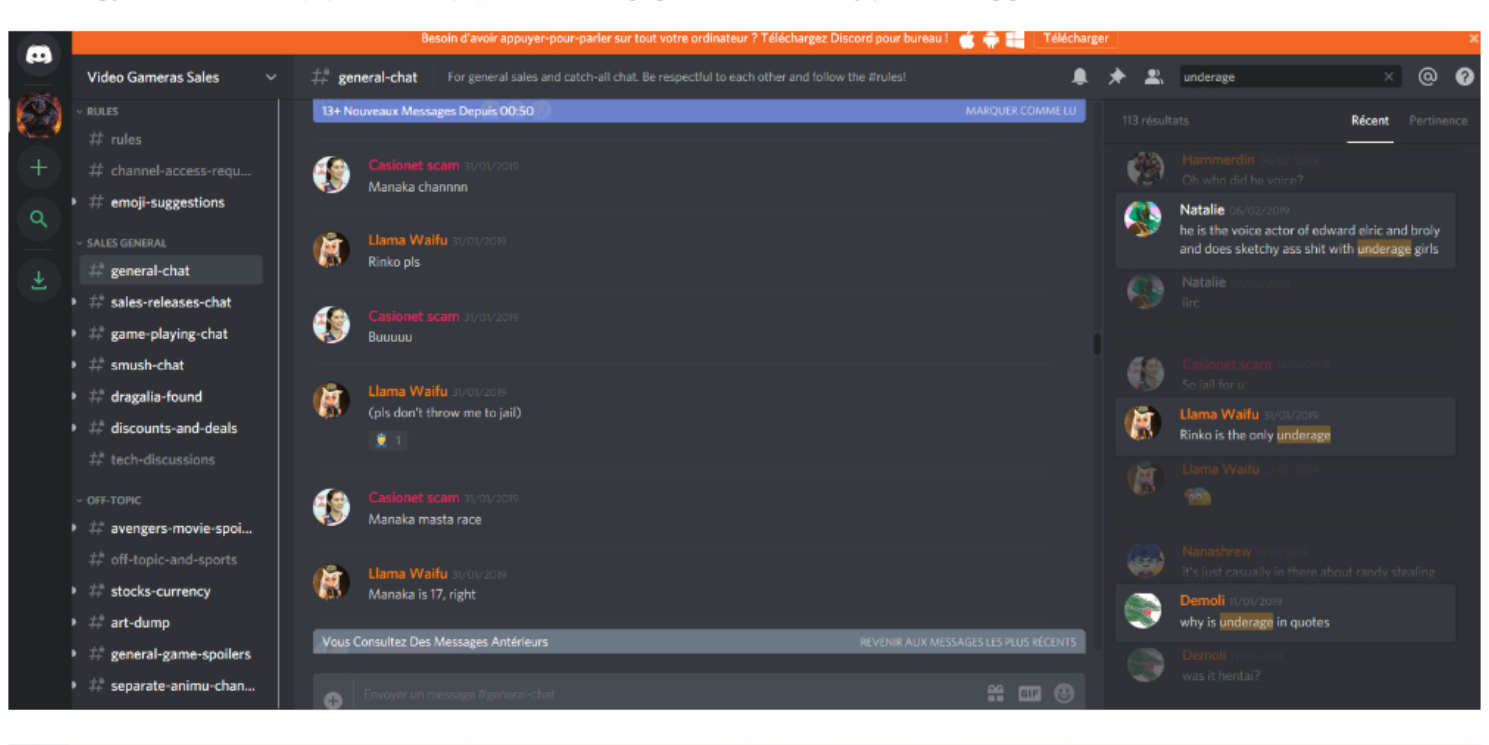
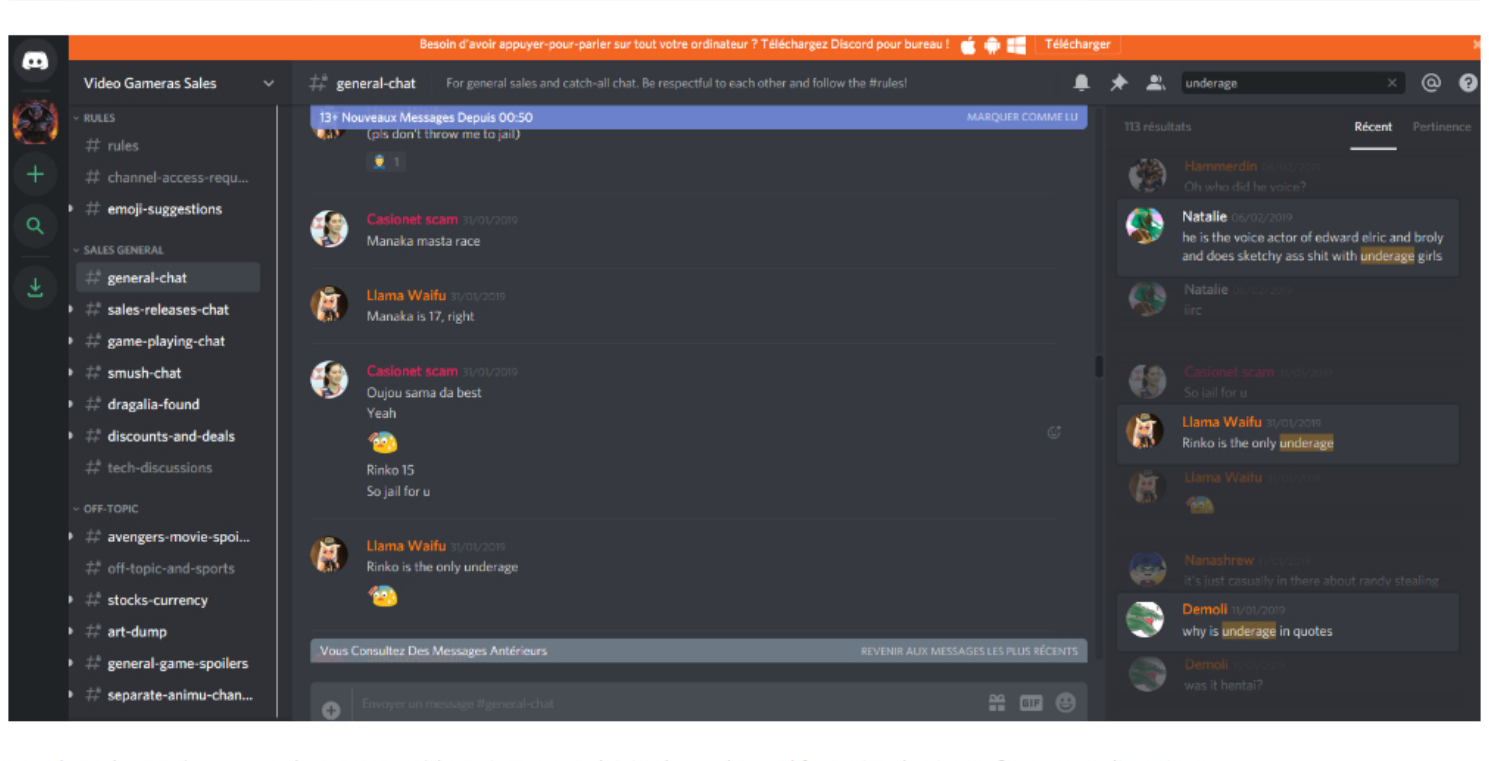
In the two following screencap, you can see two Resetera members, "Casionet scam" (Casiopao on Resetera) and "Llama_waifu" joking about craving for minors and risking jail for it. *"Manaka" (17) and "Rinko" (15) are two underage girls from LovePlus, a japanese dating game.

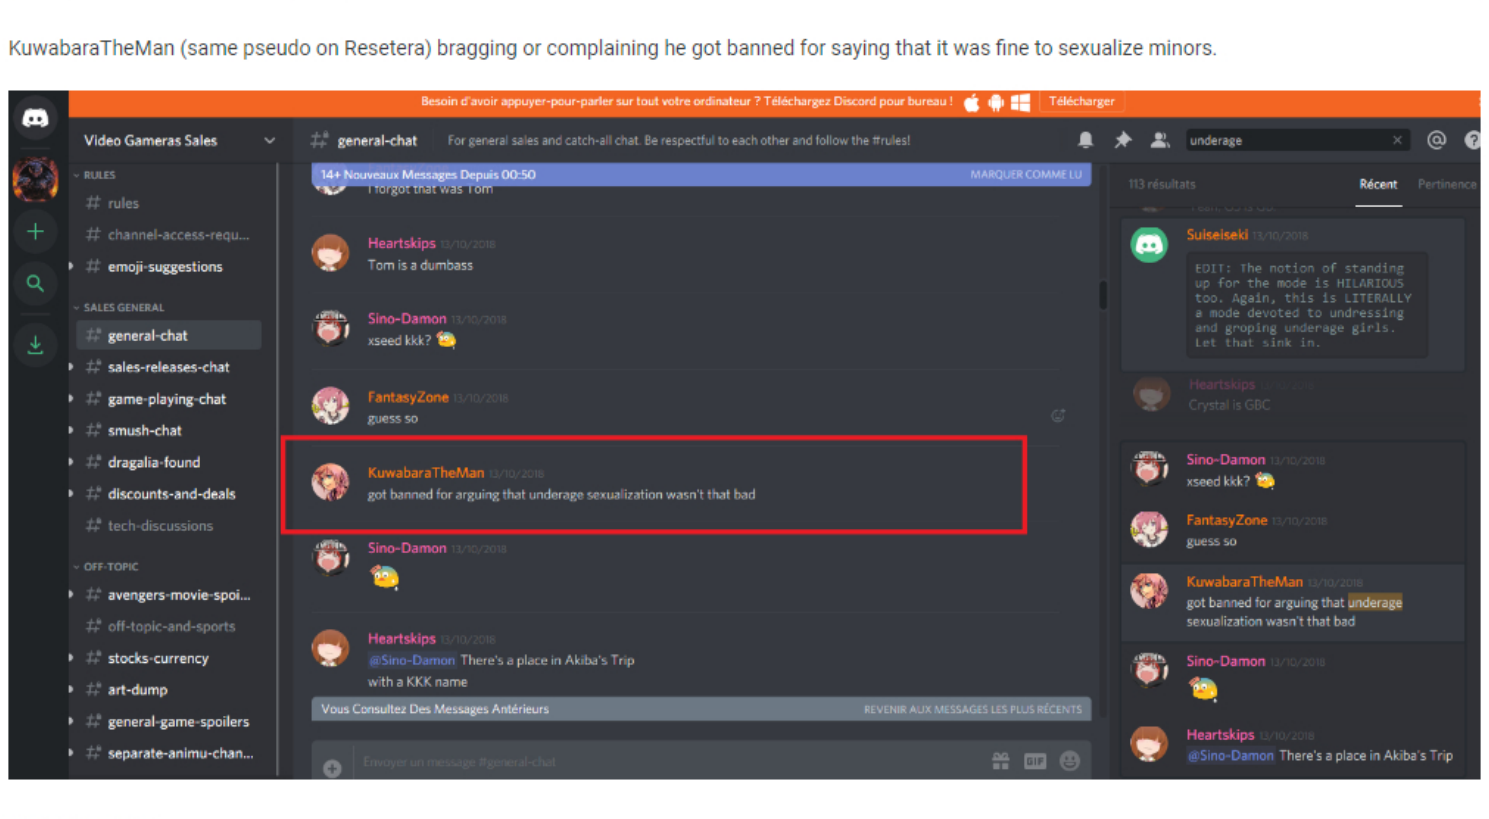


Casionet scam: Manaka channnn
Llama Waifu: Rinko pls
Casionet scam: Buuuuu
Llama Waifu: (pls don't throw me to jail)
Casionet scam: Manaka masta race
Llama Waifu: Manaka is 17, right
Natalie: he is the voice actor of edward elric and broly and does sketchy ass shit with underage girls
Llama Waifu: Rinko is the only underage
Demoli: why is underage in quotes



(pls don't throw me to jail)
Casionet scam: Manaka masta race
Llama Waifu: Manaka is 17, right
Casionet scam: Oujou sama da best
Yeah
Rinko 15
So jail for u
Llama Waifu: Rinko is the only underage

KuwabaraTheMan (same pseudo on Resetera) bragging or complaining he got banned for saying that it was fine to sexualize minors.



I forgot that was Tom
Heartskips: Tom is a dumbass
Sino-Damon: sseed kkk?
FantasyZone: guess so
KuwabaraTheMan: got banned for arguing that underage sexualization wasn't that bad
Heartskips: @Sino-Damon There's a place in Akiba's Trip with a KKK name Suiseiseki: EDIT: the notion of standing up for the mode is HILARIOUS too. Again, this is LITERALLY a mode devoted to undressing and groping underage girls. Let that sink in.

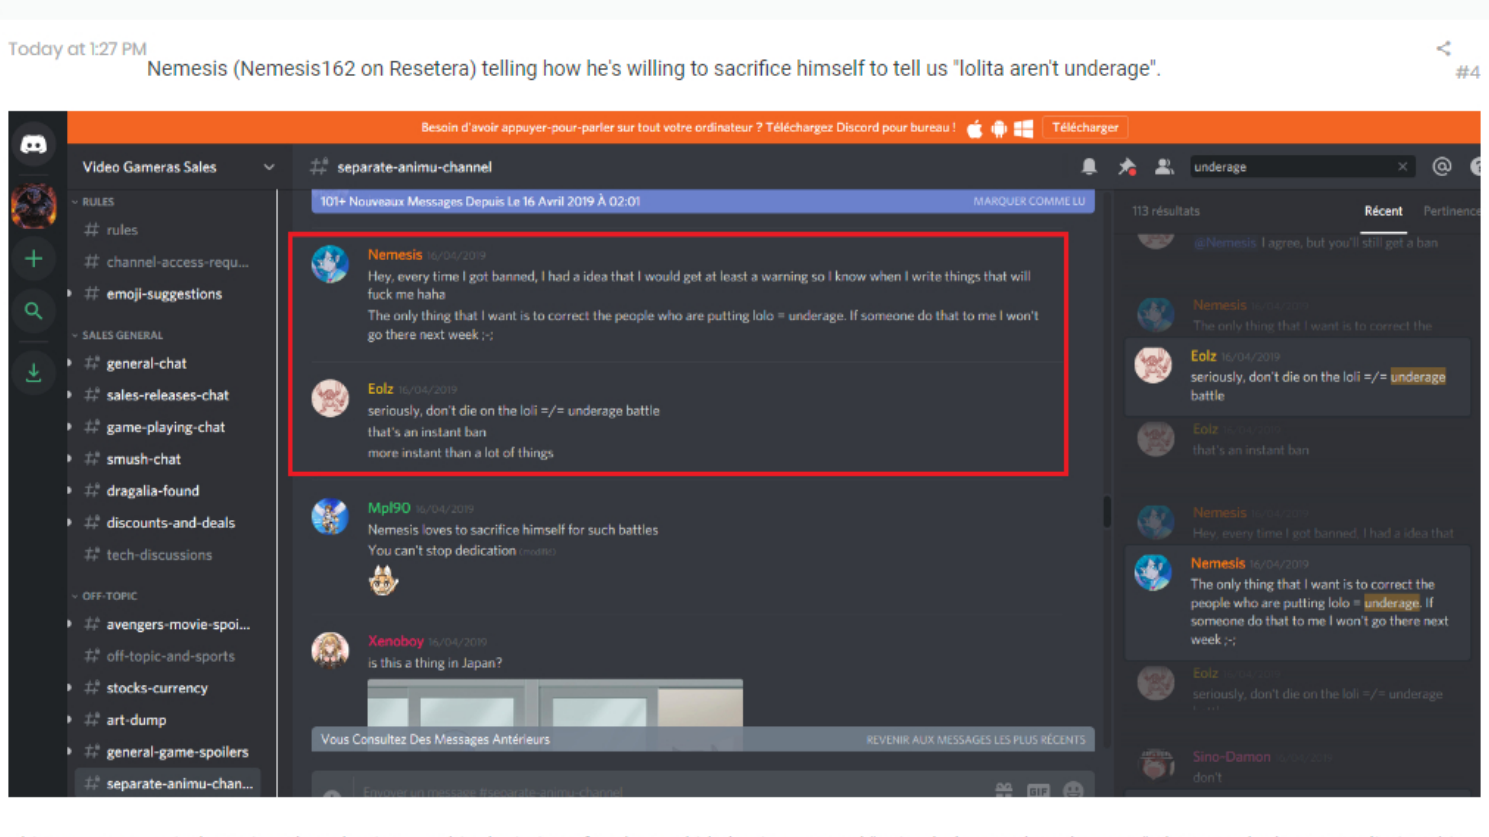
Nemesis (Nemesis162 on Resetera) telling how he's willing to sacrifice himself to tell us "lolita aren't underage".



Nemesis: Hey, every time I got banned, I had a idea that I would get at least a warning so I know when I write things that will fuck me haha
The only thing that I want is to correct the people who are putting lolis = underage. If someone do that to me I won't go there next week lol Eolz: seriously, don't die on the loli =/= underage battle that's an instant ban
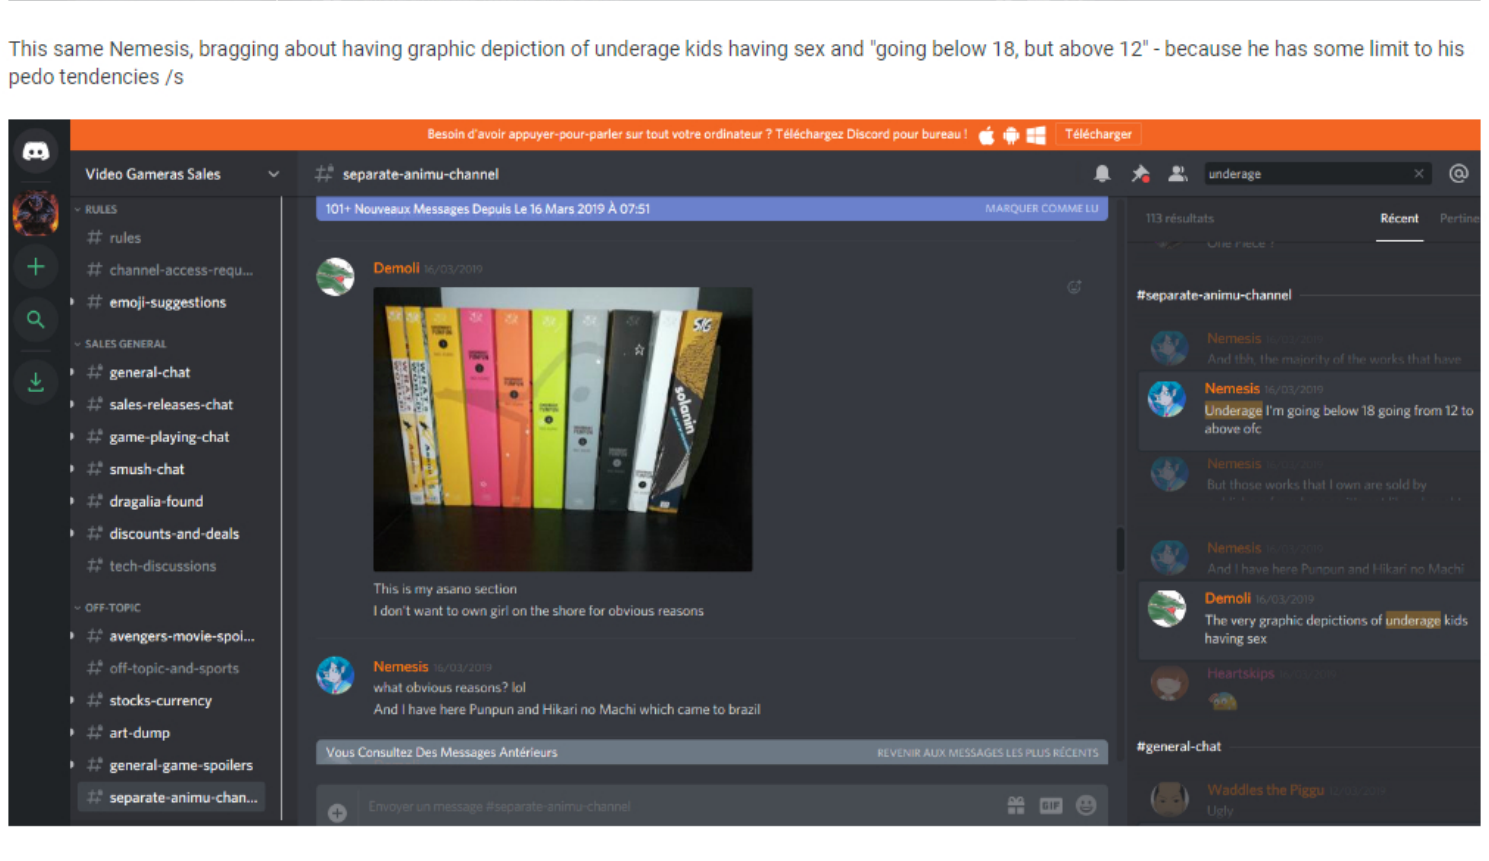
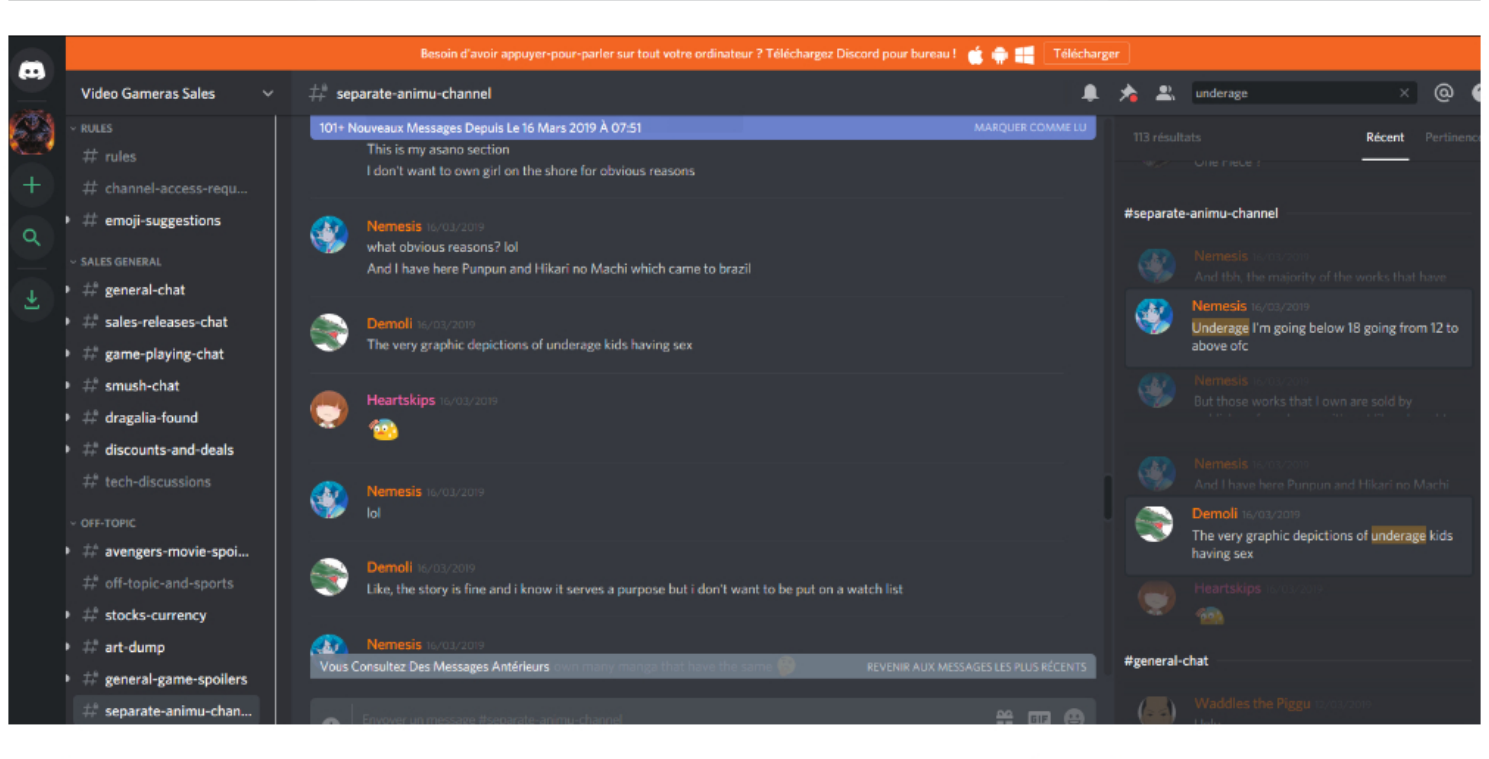
more instant than a lot of things
Mpl90: Nemesis loves to sacrifice himself for such battles
You can't stop dedication
Nemesis: is this a thing in Japan?

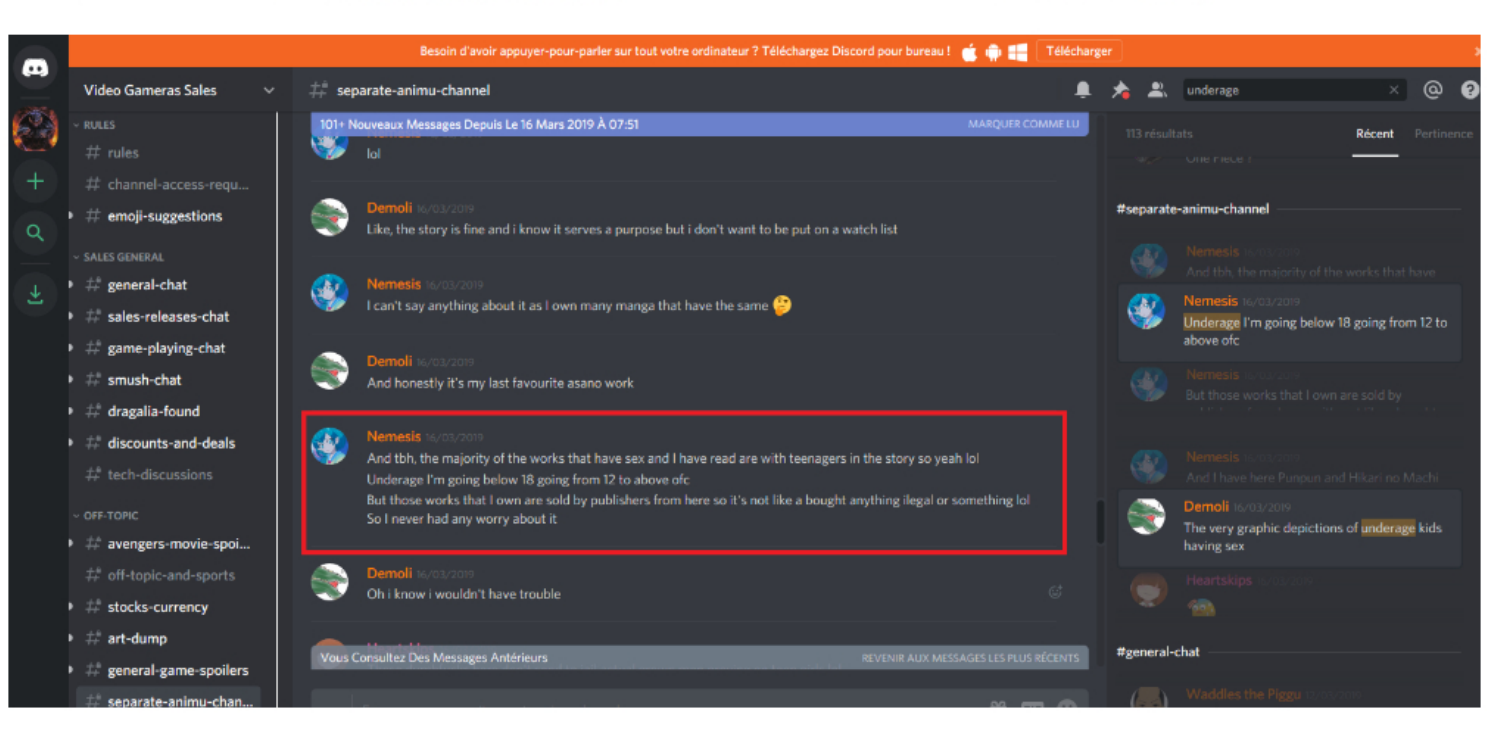
This same Nemesis, bragging about having graphic depiction of underage kids having sex and "going below 18, but above 12" - because he has some limit to his pedo tendencies /s



Demoli: This is my asano section
I don't want to own girl on the shore for obvious reasons
Nemesis: what obvious reasons? lol
And I have here Punpun and Hikari no Machi which came to brazil
Nemesis: Underage I'm going below 18 going from 12 to above ofc
Demoli: The very graphic depictions of underage kids having sex



Demoli: The very graphic depictions of underage kids having sex
Nemesis: lol
Demoli: Like, the story is fine and I know it serves a purpose but i don't want to be put on a watch list



Demoli: Like, the story is fine and I know it serves a purpose but i don't want to be put on a watch list
Nemesis: I can't say anything about it as I own many manga that have the same 🤔
Demoli: And honestly it's my last favourite asano work
Nemesis: And tbh, the majority of the works that have sex and I have read are with teenagers in the story so yeah lol
Underage I'm going below 18 going from 12 to above ofc
But those works that I own are sold by publishers from here so it's not like a bought anything illegal or something lol
So I never had any worry about it
Demoli: Oh i know i wouldn't have trouble

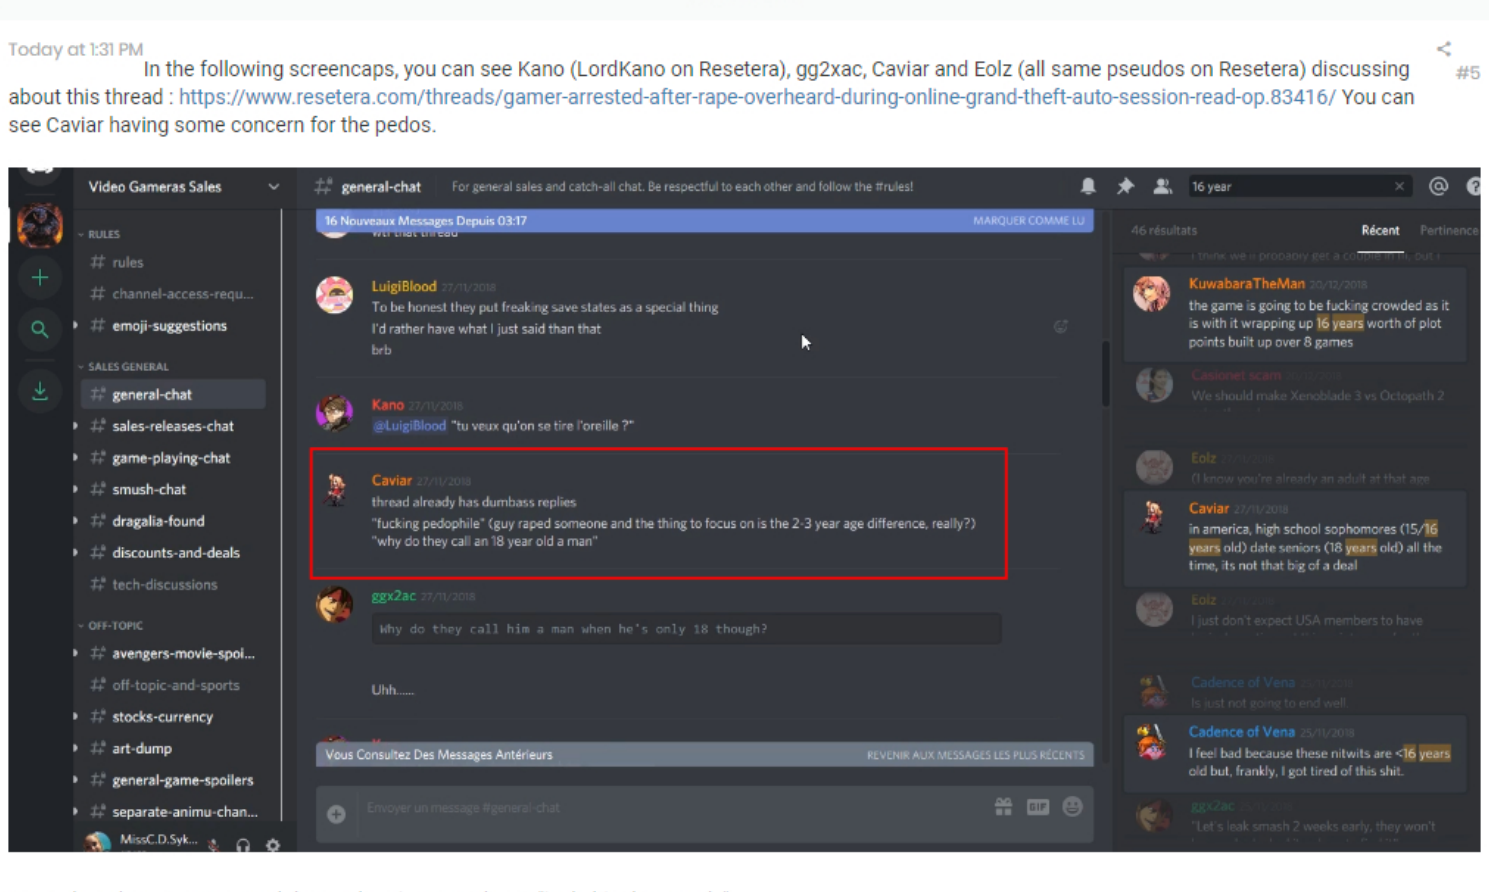
In the following screencaps, you can see Kano (LordKano on Resetera), gg2xac, Caviar and Eolz (all same pseudos on Resetera) discussing about this thread : https://www.resetera.com/threads/gamer-arrested-after-rape-overheard-during-online-grand-theft-auto-session-read-op.83416/ You can see Caviar having some concern for the pedos.



LuigiBlood: To be honest they put freaking save states as a special thing
I'd rather have what I just said than that brb
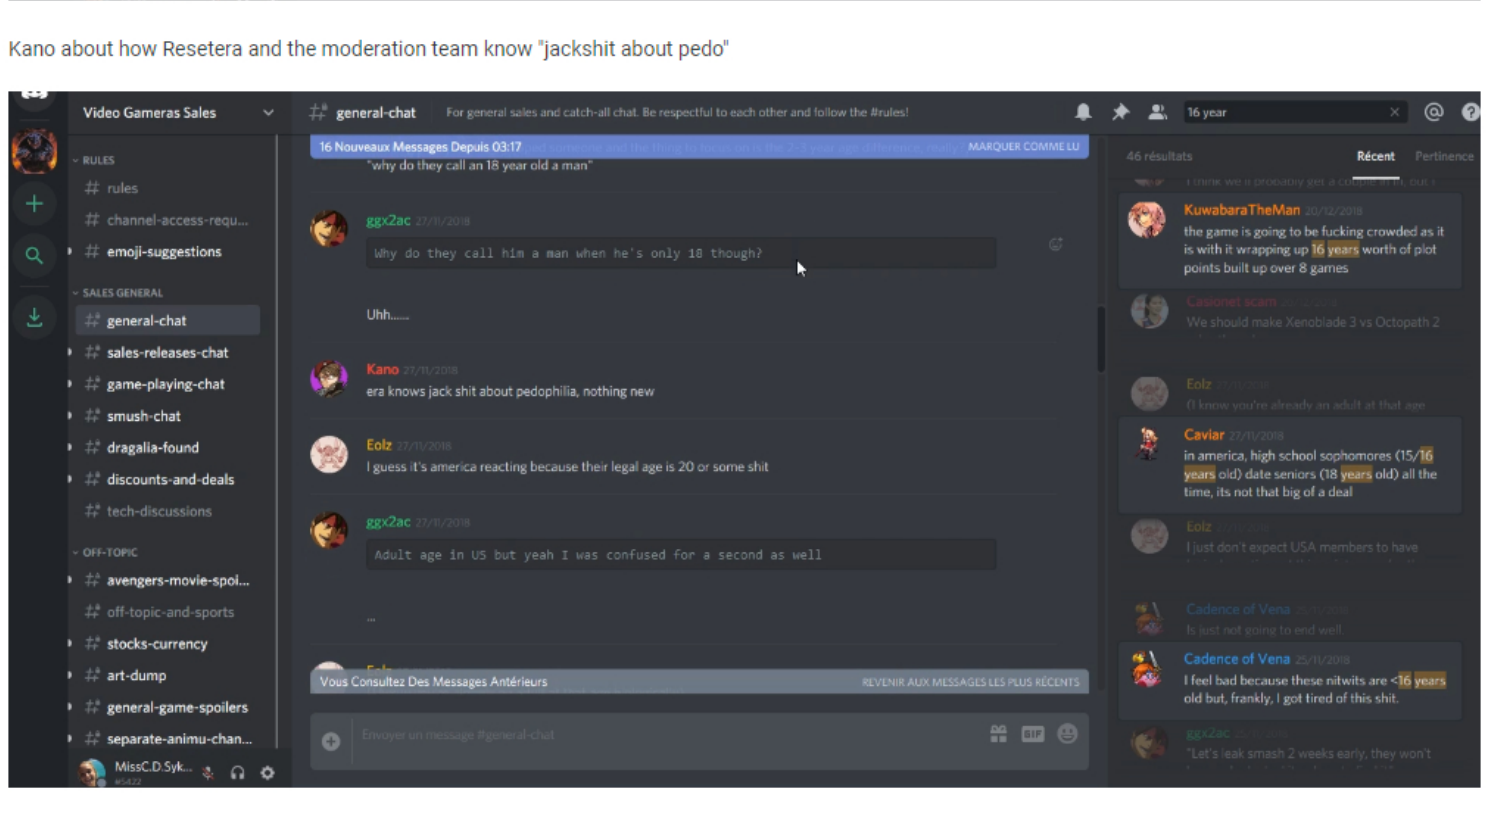
Kano: @LuigiBlood "tu veux qu'on se tire l'oreille ?"
Caviar: thread already has dumbass replies
"fucking pedophile" (guy raped someone and the thing to focus on is the 2-3 year age difference, really?)
"why do they call an 18 year old a man"
ggx2ac: Why do they call him a man when he's only 18 though?
Uhh.....
KuwabaraTheMan: the game is going to be fucking crowded as it is with it wrapping up 16 years worth of plot points built up over 8 games
Caviar: in america, high school sophomores (15/16 years old) date seniors (18 years old) all the time, its not that big of a deal
Cadence of Vena: I feel bad because these nitwits are <16 years old but, frankly, I got tired of this shit.

Kano about how Resetera and the moderation team know "jackshit about pedo"



"why do they call an 18 year old a man"
ggx2ac: Why do they call him a man when he's only 18 though?
Uhh.....
Kano: era knows jack shit about pedophilia, nothing new Eolz: I guess it's america reacting because their legal age is 20 or some shit ggx2ac: Adult age in US but yeah I was confused for a second as well

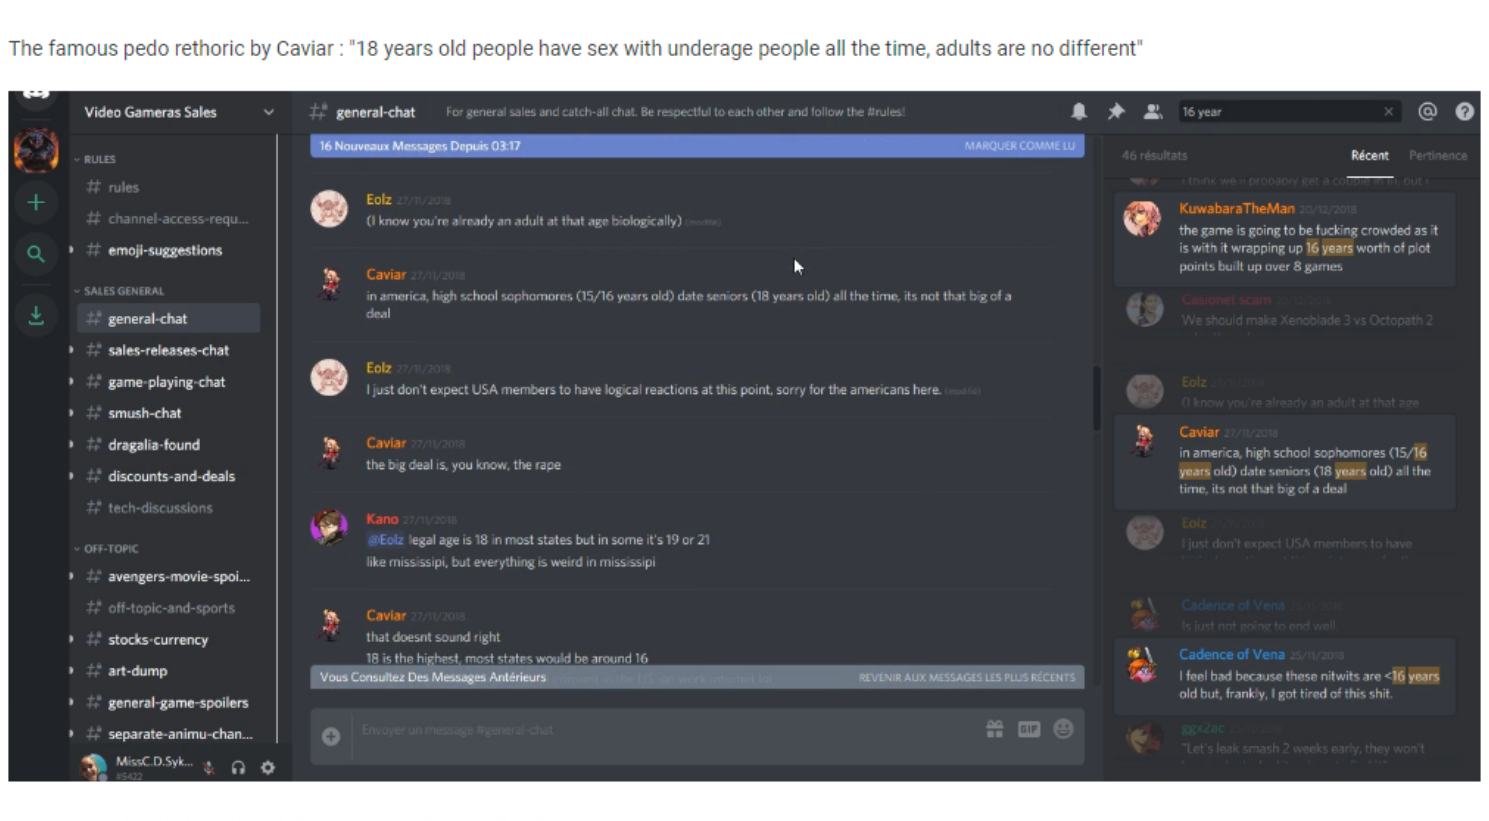
The famous pedo rethoric by Caviar : "18 years old people have sex with underage people all the time, adults are no different"



Eolz: (I know you're already an adult at that age biologically)
Caviar: in america, high school sophomores (15/16 years old) date seniors (18 years old) all the time, its not that big of a deal
Eolz: I just don't expect USA members to have logical reactions at this point, sorry for the americans here.
Caviar: the big deal is, you know, the rape
Kano: @Eolz legal age is 18 in most states but in some it's 19 or 21 like mississipi, but everything is weird in mississipi
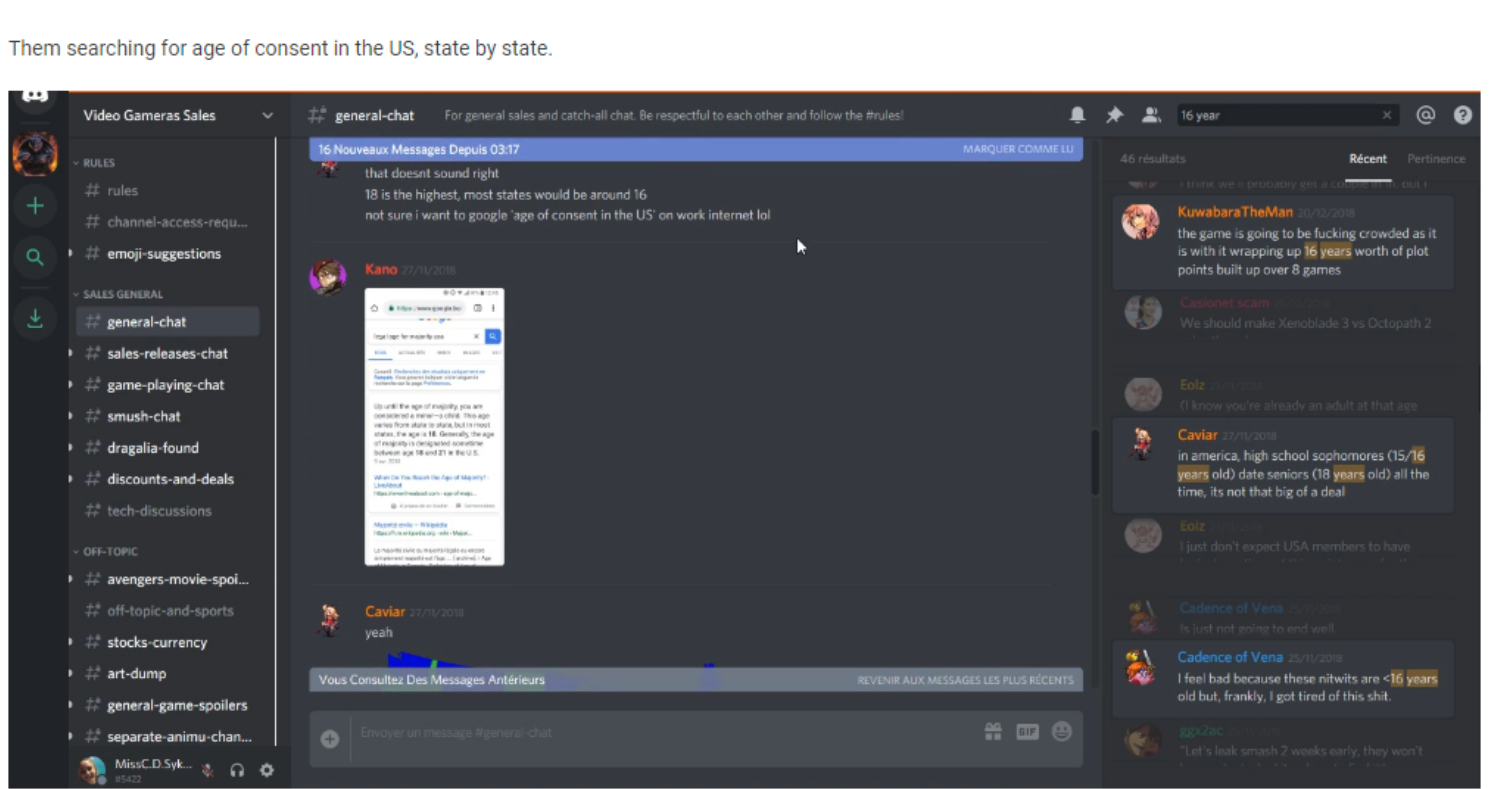
Caviar: that doesnt sound right
18 is the highest, most states would be around 16

Them searching for age of consent in the US, state by state.



that doesnt sound right
18 is the highest, most states would be around 16
not sure I want to google 'age of consent in the US' on work internet lol
Kano:
Caviar: yeah

Is that how you consider someone who was delicate enough to warn you directly about those problems, in person, instead of sharing the story publicly ? Is that how you consider someone who's warning you about pedo-minded people being rampant in your community ? If you want a reason people are afraid to speak, there it is : if you speak, you'll be ostracized and isolated.

I don't know what happened after that. I just verified, the members I'm talking about are still very active on the forum, to this date (15/06/2019). You can find their profile, their pseudos are ggx2ac, Hammerdin, KwabaraTheMan, Nemesis (Nemesis162), Caviar, Hammerdin, Lonely1, Llama Waifu, Casionet Scam (Casiopao on Resetera), LuigiBlood. If someone has an account over Resetera, screencap their profile and their recent activity, before they change pseudos or something like that.

Hammerdin erased a lot of his posts and erased his avatar too, probably to cover his ass. I think Llama Waifu changed his pseudo too, I don't know what is the new one.

All of them still here, potentially discussing with minors and all being fine on Resetera. Yeah, Resetera's staff isn't afraid to publicly ban people who defend pedophilia. It's against their rules. But what about what happens behind closed doors ? What happens to the people known to have pedophile tendencies and participating in Resetera ? It was one single Resetera's discord among many and mind you, I could only type a handful of keywords before being banned from this discord server.

So, now you know it all. Talking about this wasn't easy, you never know how people will react and I probably should have talk about that sooner. I tried, but I was in a difficult situation myself. I didn't have a place to live (I still don't) and I had to move from house to house, from Belgium to France. The situation was dire. I'm also a shy and introvert person, I don't like to cause problems to anyone. However, I just had to. I saw something and I said something, but nothing was done, months after. Resetera is very quick at throwing pedophile accusations (THQ Nordic, 8chan...), let's see what they'll make out of this and where their moral lands.

You can block me Cerium, you can't block the internet. You fully endorsed all your community's moral crusades, but what about your own moral, your decisions and what the internet think of it ?

I'm not internet savvy enough, so I decided to post that on Neogaf because I hope it will get traction here. Now, it's up to you to give this story the attention it deserves.

I'm done posting. If a moderator can erase the "don't post" part of my title for better clarity it would be great. If a mod could also rearrange the post for better clarity, it would be cool too.

(I have more elements of course, I'm keeping some stuff on my work-place server, just in case, just in case those people chose to defend themselves in bad faith).

I've got to head to work in a bit (my heat pump has been out for three days and I am FINALLY getting it fixed), so anyone up to the challenge should archive responses, if it is not nuked immediately.

I don't think anyone is gonna care over there.

I imagine that anyone who brings this up will face a quick perm. Or rather anyone who doesn't downplay it.

But I am sure its a good thing to make public. They are a site that allows minors.

This is definitely gonna kickstart some interforum drama so before they zerg rush us to tell us how we're all Nazis and pornbomb us I think each and every one of us should equip a Cyberpunk 2077 avatar. It's like garlic to a vampire so it's the only way to ensure our safety.

It's not about arguing about lolita. Read it all. It's about letting pedo-minded people with an attraction toward underage people going rampant in a community. A community where some members are minors. Giving those pedo-apologist a platform, while being aware of their tendencies because they don't even try to hide them. You don't find it weird they act like that, discuss those stuff, brag about it while some of Resetera most prominent admin is here, in the server, spending most of his life there ?

It's about the staff of Resetera being aware of that and letting them be active on their forum. It's about Cerium, Resetera's owner going into defensive mode and refusing to see more before deciding to take actions.

It's about the irony of throwing accusations towards everyone who's not them (THQ Nordic, 8chan, Dr.Disrespect...) of endorsing pedophile or just being pedophiles while in fact, they let pedophiles going rampant in their own community.

Finally, pedo-apologist and pedo-minded people being "common" on internet doesn't make it ok.

I have a question for you @Celine.D.Sykes

Would the posts (on the discord) get you banned if posted on the website?

GAF is no stranger to pointing out the hypocrisy of ERA. You're in good company, but please don't let it consume your thoughts. Play games, enjoy the hobby, enjoy the community.

Wanting to fuck kids in a woke way is fine until you get found out publicly and then they throw you under the bus to save themselves.

Whew lad at ZhugeEX asking for your ban when you show proof. That's a proper worry.

Disconcerting for sure. More worrying perhaps is the reluctance from Cerium to investigate further.

Of course we shouldn't jump to conclusions like they do over there, but there's certainly compelling evidence about the way it's openly discussed and nobody seems to bat an eyelid.
